

Songwriters Workshop

Description: Learn about and identify the different parts of a pop song.

Materials: paper or print at home worksheets, pen or pencil

Optional materials: notebook, dictionary or rhyming dictionary, thesaurus

Instructions: Copy onto paper or print Songwriters Workshop worksheets (Lesson, Songs)

Read the descriptions of the Parts of a Song lesson and fill in the blanks for the worksheets.

Optional extension: Copy onto paper or print Extension worksheet. Using the worksheet, a separate sheet of paper, or in a notebook, create your own lyrics based on the parts of a song.

Links to online rhyming dictionary and thesaurus

- Rhymes
- Rhyme Desk
- RhymeZone
- Rhymer
- Thesaurus
- Your Dictionary Thesaurus

Songwriting seems tricky, but it's actually really fun!

The beauty of songwriting is that the song can be as silly, serious, funny, sad, happy, or anything else you can imagine. It can rhyme or not rhyme, and it can be as long or short as you want.

The idea behind the song can also be made up or true, it's just up to you!