

Kyrene Theatre Enrichments for Middle School At-Home Learning

TITLE: Villain Misunderstood Monologue

SHORT DESCRIPTION: Create a monologue from a villain's point of view

MATERIALS: Paper, pencil

OPTIONAL: Share the monologue with your teacher via Google Classroom.

INSTRUCTIONS: A monologue is text delivered by one character that reveals their thoughts, feelings, or addresses the audience or other character on stage. Pick your favorite villain from fiction and write a monologue explaining "their side" of the story.

LINKS TO LEARN MORE AND EXPLORE:

Monologues written by teens:

<https://www.dramanotebook.com/monologues-kids-teenagers/>

Ideas for writing monologues:

<https://www.theatrefolk.com/blog/playwriting-exercise-month-monologues/>